

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus. During this time of change it is important that we remain founded upon the word of The Lord. We must continue to stand firmly on the knowledge that God is sovereign and always in control. The Bible tells us that he is the author and the finisher of our faith.

Let us also continue to walk as one body in Christ. Let us be the reflection of who God is to our neighbor, as well as, our brothers and sisters in Christ. Though we may have differing opinions on various topics it is vital that we be respectful towards one another; and in instances in which we disagree we must turn to God and invite Him to be our mediator. For we understand that only God knows the absolute truth. Let us not be stricken with fear, but rather faith in God. For we know that God has not given us the spirit of fear but of power, love and a sound mind. We must not allow for disagreements to divide us, but rather see them as an opportunity to seek God together in search for His vision for the church in these last days. Let us ready and prepare ourselves to be vessels of Honor available to be used by God for His purpose in service to His kingdom.

Through scripture we see the prophecies of the birth of our Messiah be fulfilled down to the very last word. This means that all things: good, bad, frightening, confusing, and unknown all had to work together in perfect succession for the Messiah to be born. As this perfect plan was fulfilled perfectly, yet again, so shall all things: good, bad, frightening, confusing and unknown work together perfectly to fulfill Christ's second coming.

This day we must not forget the great Commandment given to us in Deuteronomy:

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates. And it shall be, when the Lord thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not, And houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full; Then beware lest thou forget the Lord, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you; (For the Lord thy God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth. Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye tempted him in Massah. Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the Lord your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee. And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the Lord hath spoken.”

Deuteronomy 6:4-19 KJV

Nor must we lose sight of the great commission given to us in Matthew:

“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.”

Matthew 28:18-20 KJV

I declare a special blessing and anointing upon your hearts, homes and lives in Jesus name!

Until The Lord Returns
